

The 8th Annual "Scream for Charity" Halloween Fun Day Donation & Sponsorship Form

About the Event

Since 2003, the English Solutions Team and its clients and partners have joined together each October to bring to life the "Scream for Charity" Halloween Fun Day. The aim of the event is to interact in a hands-on way with underprivileged Thai children from various orphanages and child support centers. This year, we have invited over 250 children from Emergency Home, Pakkred Home for Boys, the Human Development Foundation, Duang Prateep and several other organizations to join us on October 30, 2010 for a day of fun-filled, Halloween-related treats and activities including a "live" haunted house, trick-or-treating, face painting and much more.

Please join us in brightening the lives of these children in a tangible and lasting way.

Supported Organizations

Rajvithi Home for Girls

Provides welfare services and develops needy children. Services provide basic necessities, including formal and vocational education. Services are for socially disadvantaged girls aged 5-18 years who have no guardians, whose families are poor, whose parents are residents of the Social Welfare Department or who come from broken homes.

Duang Prateep Foundation

The Klong Toey slum, where the Duang Prateep Foundation (DPF) is located, is Bangkok’s largest slum community with some 80,000 residents. The Foundation provides a variety of important services in keeping with its mission to support families and develop the community, including schools, advocacy services and a credit union. The DPF is a people’s organization, identifying with the aspirations of the poor.

Mahamek Home for Boys

The Mahamek Home for Boys operates under the Bureau of Anti-Trafficking in Women and Children. It provides child and youth services in accordance with the Child Protection Act, supporting 140 youth from the ages of 4 to 24. Emphasis is placed on the education and development of the young men that stay at the home, and six residential houses, each with 20-30 children, support the basic needs of the boys.

Human Development Foundation (Mercy Center)

The Human Development Foundation (HDF) was established by Father Joe Maier in 1974, and the organization now reaches out to friends in over 30 slum communities. The HDF supports many activities, including a shelter for street kids, four orphanages, a hospice, a home for mothers and children with HIV/AIDS, and several ‘one-Baht’ kindergartens. The HDF is a non-denominational, community-based field organization.

Emergency Home

The Emergency Home assists women & children who are victims of forced prostitution, rape, HIV/AIDS, abandonment and physical & emotional abuse. The Home offers food, shelter, healthcare and physical & psychological rehabilitation as well as life skills training and vocational education. An average of 120 women & children are sheltered at the Emergency Home each day; the Home has helped over 48,000 women & children.

Christian Children’s Fund

For almost 50 years, the Christian Children’s Fund (CCF) Foundation has been working in Thailand to provide care, protection, education and development for families and needy children ranging from newborns to teenagers. Currently, CCF assists over 600,000 children and family members. CCF programs involve health, nutrition, sanitation, micro-enterprise, education and early childhood development as well as peer education.

AMCHAM Adopt-a-School Program

The American Chamber of Commerce (AMCHAM) in Thailand has been supporting education initiatives in Thailand for over 35 years through its Adopt-a-School Program. During October, all donations received will be matched 75%. Donations to the AMCHAM Thailand Charitable Foundation are tax deductible and provide water tanks & filtration systems, playgrounds, libraries, English toolkits and other items for needy schools in rural areas.
