8th Annual “Scream for Charity” (organized by English Solutions)

Saturday, October 30, 2010 (11am - 5pm)

Location: TBA

Halloween is more than just ‘tricks and treats.’ It is about having fun! English Solutions is doing something different in Thailand to promote positive changes in our local community. The English Solutions Team is celebrating Halloween in an ‘edutaining’ way with a scary haunted house and loads of activities to teach local children from disadvantaged backgrounds about the holiday.

English Solutions is putting its community service mission into practice by working with the Emergency Home, the Pakkred Reception Home for Boys, the Sikkha Asia Foundation and the CCF Foundation to give Bangkok’s youth something to scream (and smile) about.

Everyone is invited to join English Solutions in celebrating Halloween on Saturday, October 30, 2010 from 11am - 5pm. Come to play or to volunteer. Call 02-655-3030 and 085-902-6924 for any donations or inquiries. Sponsors needed for our 8th Annual English Solutions Halloween Charity Event.
